MEN WHO HELPED MAKE PORTSMOUTH

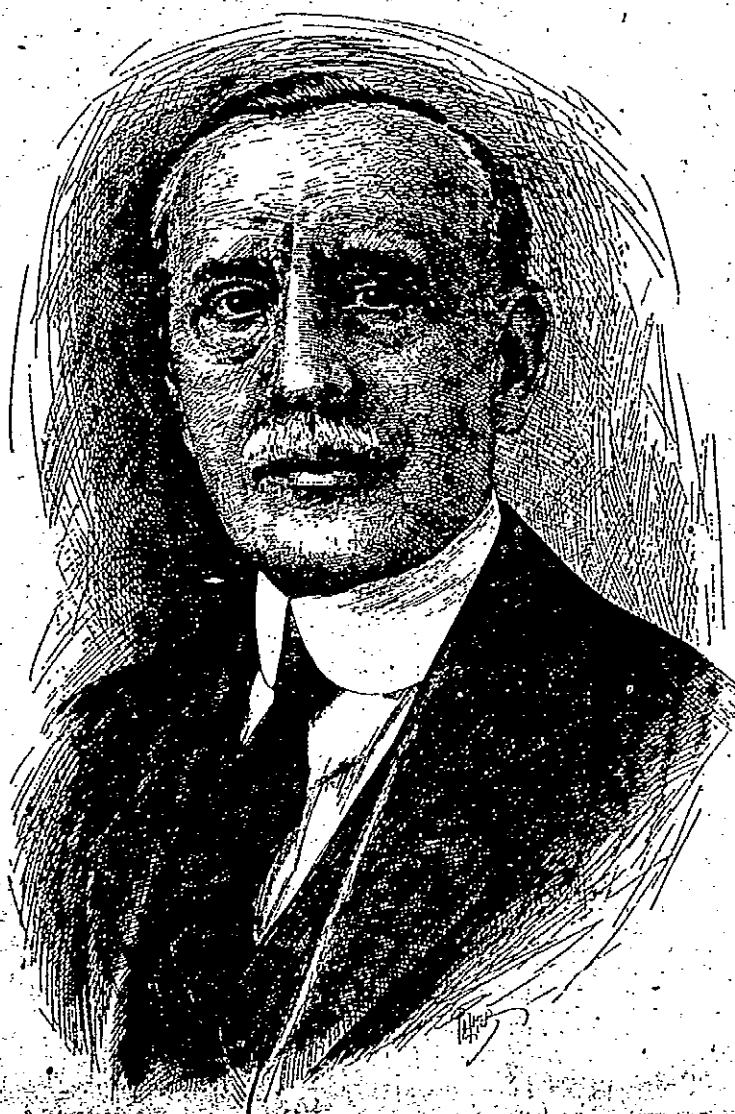

Brief Sketches of Their Lives, Which Should Be An Inspiration to All; Opportunities In Portsmouth for the Hard-working, Conscientious Young Man Just As Good As Anywhere Else In The World

Though the thoughts of youth may be long, long thoughts, it is doubtful if George E. Krieker, at the age of 13, selling wall paper at a salary of $1.00 per week thought that today he would be the president of a national bank.

Born in Portsmouth, December 19, 1883, Mr. Krieker has spent practically his entire life here. Clerking and book-keeping gave him valuable business experience, and three years association with the R. G. Dunn Co. broadened his knowledge of finance.

When the postoffice was built at the corner of Sixth and Chillicothe streets Mr. Krieker's far sightedness saw Portsmouth growing away from the down town district where the five banks of the city were located, and he interested a group of progressive business men in establishing an up town bank. On June the 5th, 1893, the Central Savings Bank, now the Central National Bank was opened on Gallia street at its present location, with Mr. Krieker as cashier. The following year Mr. Krieker organized the Commercial Building & Loan Co., of which he has been secretary since its beginning, November 6, 1894. He also holds business interests in the George E. Krieker Co., which handles insurance, the Wilhelm-Krieker Co., dealing in real estate, the Krieker-Balmer Co. and the Irving Drew Co.

Mr. Krieker is a member of the Elks and the Rotary Clubs. From selling wall paper to being president of a national bank is a worth while development for any man, and Mr. Krieker says the opportunities are even greater in Portsmouth today than they were when he went into business.

GEORGE E. KRICKER

Portsmouth's growth has been steady and consistent. There has been a lower percentage of business failures here than in any town of similar size in the state. Mr. Krieker believes that if a survey were made of the business men of over fifty years of age it would be found that the average of success was higher among those who have stayed in Portsmouth and concentrated their efforts on building up their business here, than among those who sought opportunities in larger communities.

Way Opened For "Dark Horse" For President

BY DAVID LAWRENCE.
(Copyright, 1924.)

WASHINGTON, February 9.—Developments in the Teapot Dome oil controversy have opened the way for the proverbial "Dark Horses" in Presidential politics.

Already there is an undercurrent of opinion among the politicians in the Democratic party that nobody who has been directly or indirectly connected with the oil mix-up should be nominated. This is accompanied by the argument that unless both parties purge themselves the formation of a third political party is not unlikely.

William Gibbs McAdoo's statement casting the manifest injustice of dragging his name into the controversy made a good impression because every body knows Mr. McAdoo had no more to do with the oil affair now under discussion than did the late Secretary of the Interior, Franklin Lane, who became an official in Mr. Doherty's company.

Similarly the attack on McAdoo has been traced according to his supporters to the anti-Wilson attitude of Senator James Reed of Missouri, who is

Separatists Quit

MAYENCE, GERMANY, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The Separatists this morning vacated the public buildings in Mayence which they have been holding for some time. The evacuation apparently was made in agreement with the functionaries of the old regime, who entered from one side as the Separatists left from the other.

Dawes Denies He Will Resign

PARIS, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes has no intention of resigning as chairman of the first committee of experts examining Germany's economic and financial condition, he declared today in a telephone conversation from Berlin with a reporter.

His disclaimer was made in connection with various published rumors that he was withdrawing from the inquiry.

Avalanche Buries Train

LINZ, UPPER AUSTRIA, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—An avalanche swept upon the railway station at Hiedau last night, burying a passenger train and a carriage containing several persons.

Railroad men and neighboring villagers are hard at work digging out the train and rescuing the passengers. Telephone messages received here request the assistance of troops. No loss of life was mentioned.

The avalanche, which was estimated to be a thousand feet long and fully 100 feet in depth, swept into the River Enns after burying the train.

Mannequin Murder Mystery Deepens

NEW YORK, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The mystery of the murder of Louise Lawson, mannequin and actress, in her fashionable Seventy-Seventh street apartment yesterday became deeper today when detectives found part of her jewels in a shop where she had left them to be repaired. The discovery tended to dissipate the police theory of a robbery motive. Miss Lawson, a towel stuffed in her mouth, her hands and feet tightly bound was found dead by her negro maid. Police found the apartment in disorder and the young woman's jewel boxes empty. Two evidence, coupled with an elevator boy's story of two unknown strangers who visited the apartment, led to the robbery theory.

NEW YORK, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—A dragnet of police all of the city's known haunts of bootleggers in an effort to find two men who visited the luxurious West Seventy-Seventh street apartment of Louise Lawson, 24 years old, shortly before the young woman was found yesterday morning bound face downward on her bed, gagged and strangled to death.

Clad in dainty night clothes, the body was found in a tastefully decorated

May Return To Movies

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—William Westover Hart, formerly of the gun and western screen plays, has signed a contract with his new agent, by her attorney today asking the superior court to pass upon her right to return to motion picture making after an agreement entered into with her husband since their separation in May, 1922, constraining her from such course, according to the Los Angeles Times.

Mrs. Hart is now prohibited from appearing in motion pictures or from allowing herself to be photographed for screen or advertising purposes during the life of a trust fund of $100,000 established for her by Hart shortly after their separation. The terms of the fund to which she agreed provide that she will receive the entire amount on the death of her husband or in the event of a divorce from him and that meanwhile, she will receive the income from the fund in monthly installments, provided she respects other clauses in the agreement.

Five Negroes Held

JACKSON, MISS., February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—On instructions from Governor Whitfield, five negroes held in jail at Raymond in connection with the killing of Mrs. Nellie Marquis, formerly of Chicago, at Smith Station, Wednesday night, were brought to Jackson late last night and placed in jail. This action, it was announced, was taken as a precautionary measure to insure their safety.

Mrs. Marquis was stabbed to death, her body being found by her brother in a small store which she operated. A large knife was lying near the body.

Gets $75,000 Judgment

CLEVELAND, O., February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The first move in a fight to set aside a $75,000 judgment awarded Mrs. Frances Dautel yesterday in her $250,000 alienation suit against Mr. and Mrs. Leopold J. Dautel, parents of her estranged husband, Robert, will come Monday with the filing of a formal motion for a new trial. Attorney John A. Alburn, counsel for the defense announced today.

Tied To Patrol Box

CLEVELAND, O., February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Tied, hand and foot, to a patrol box, an intoxicated man was found by Police Sergeant William Zitsman, early today. Two taxi drivers, fearing the intoxicated man would be run over, had tied him to the patrol box and out of harm's way, Zitsman said. He was held in the police station until sober and then released.

Charges Oil Magnates Plotted To Aid Sinclair

WASHINGTON, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—A charge that Harry F. Sinclair, E. L. Doherty and "The Standard Oil Allied Companies" conspired to assure award of the Teapot Dome naval oil lease to Sinclair was made before the senate oil committee today by Frederick G. Bonfils, publisher of the Denver Post.

Continuing his story of his connection with the group that held contesting claims in the Teapot reserve and dis posed of them to Sinclair, the publisher asserted that in addition to the payment made to that group, the Midwest and Pioneer Companies, who also had interests in the district, received $1,000,000 in oil produced by the Sinclair Company from Teapot.

Opposed To Acceptance Of Ford's Shoal Bids

WASHINGTON, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The McKenzie bill authorizing acceptance of Henry Ford's offer for the government's war time project at Muscle Shoals, Ala., is emphatically opposed in a minority report submitted today by members of the house military committee.

Comparing the Ford offer with that of the Southern Power Company, but without specifically endorsing any of the four proposals which have been adopted for Muscle Shoals plants, the report declares that acceptance of Ford's bid would amount "to a gift of enormous property and unusual advantage to a private citizen from the resources of the United States."

The power company's proposal, as compared with the Ford bid, it says, offers savings to the government amounting to $34,218,000 for 50 years and $75,000,000 for 100 years.

Representative Hull, Republican, Iowa, who consistently has opposed the Ford offer, presented the minority report, in which he was joined by Representatives Moran and Ramsey, Pennsylvania; Hill, Maryland; Frothingham, Massachusetts, and Wainwright, New York, all Republicans.

The report criticizes the majority for attempting "to justify" the violation by the Ford offer of every safeguard and principle of the federal water power act and declares that the McKenzie bill gives Mr. Ford a "loophole" to quit the manufacture of fertilizer if it should not prove profitable. Furthermore, it contends no one is in a position to know from any statement of Mr. Ford or any accredited representative whether he would accept the properties on the terms offered him in the pending bill.

Asserting that under the bill, as recommended by the majority, Mr. Ford's company would not be regulated as to service or issuance of securities by the federal government or the Alabama public service commission, the report states that Mr. Ford proposes to pay $5,000,000 for property that cost $33,015,733.65.

"The gift of property is staggering," it declares, "but that is not all or nearly all. No individual and no corporation in the United States has the unregulated control of 800,000 horse power or anything remotely approaching that figure."

Any of the other proposals submitted is better than the Ford offer, the minority holds, adding that the question of financial return to the government under his offer compared with the benefits he demands has led his supporters and apologists to strange "arithmetical gymnastics."

6 Newsboys Are Killed

MILWAUKEE, WIS., February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Six newsboys and Arnold Voight, 26, supervisor for the Milwaukee Journal, were killed last night when a Chicago Northwestern passenger train hit a Journal Company truck. The bodies were strewn 600 yards along the railroad track. The newsboys had attended a party in Cudahy and were being turned by Voight to their homes in St. Francis, a suburb, near which the accident occurred.

Voight and three of the boys were killed instantly. Two boys died on the train en route to Milwaukee after they had been picked up by the train crew and passengers, and the sixth boy died on the operating table at a hospital here.

Pathetic evidence of the joy immediately preceding death was disclosed in the finding of crushed apples, oranges and candies in the pockets of the victims.

Naval Bill Provides $271,942,867

WASHINGTON, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The annual naval appropriation bill carrying $271,942,867, of which $30,000,000 would be available for completing more than a score of vessels now under construction, was reported today by the house appropriations committee. The total is $4,453,000 less than budget estimates and $23,924,000 less than the amount allotted the navy by congress a year ago.

The bill provides $117,000,000 for pay, enough to keep the navy at its present strength of 6,438 officers, and $6,000 enlisted men during the fiscal year beginning July 1, next. Provision also is made for 1,002 officers and 19,500 enlisted men in the marine corps—the present strength.

For aviation the bill carries $14,500,000 or $77,174 less than last year's appropriation. The committee explained that it had slashed $410,000 from the budget estimate for aviation on account of a development program recommended at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, and Coco Solo, Canal Zone, which have not been authorized by law.

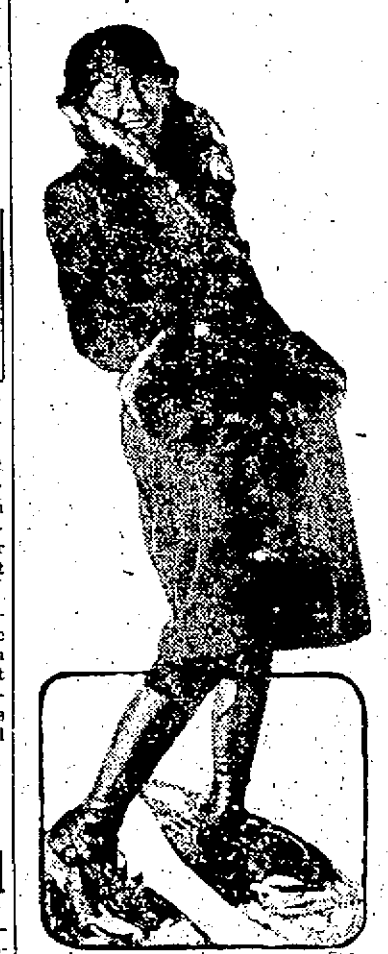

Commenting on the proposed Pearl Harbor expedition trip of the dirigible Shenandoah next summer, the report said actual expenses over normal operating costs would approximate $183,000 and that since most of this amount would be met with current appropriations, the committee had not seen fit to interfere in any way with plans for the expedition.

As to new ship construction, the committee said, it was without power to authorize expenditures for vessels not yet sanctioned by congress, but cited information it had obtained to the effect that the navy department is committed to a program for building types permissible under the Washington arms conference treaty, which, with the modernizing program already under way, would involve an expenditure of approximately $35,000,000 for the next ten years.

With reference to the appropriation of $30,000,000 for continuing the building of ships permissible under the arms conference agreements, the report said that on November 30 last, one battleship, two airplane carriers, six scout cruisers, thirteen submarines, three fleet submarines, one gunboat, two destroyer tenders, one submarine tender and one repair ship were in various stages of construction and would be completed during the coming fiscal year with the exception of the two airplane carriers, three of the scout cruisers and the three fleet submarines. An additional $6,500,000, it was estimated, will have to be appropriated to complete the work.

The committee declined to accept a budget recommendation that $2,850,000 be appropriated for commencing the construction of three fleet submarines authorized in 1916 declaring the value of this type of craft had not yet been proved. It recommended instead that $500,000 be made available for the development and testing of submarine motive power under actual service conditions.

ANDERSON, SENTENCED TO THE PEN RESIGNS

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The resignation of William H. Anderson as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, was accepted at a meeting of the league's board of directors in New York City last Tuesday. This announcement was made today by the Rev. William C. Spicer, vice president of the league, and pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Gloversville.

To Put Up Hard Fight

NEW YORK, February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—A stiff fight, it was asserted today, will be made to keep William H. Anderson, who was reported last night as having resigned as state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, from going to Sing Sing prison to which he was sentenced yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Tompkins for altering the books of that organization.

Arguments will be heard next Friday by Supreme Court Justice Wagner for a certificate of reasonable doubt which former Governor Charles S. Whitman, chief of Mr. Anderson's attorneys, sought immediately after sentence had been pronounced. The move for the certificate was the first toward an appeal.

Should Justice Wagner refuse the certificate, Anderson, it was understood, would have to go to Sing Sing without delay to begin his term of between one and two years. But should it be granted, the way would be paved for an appeal and he probably would continue at liberty in the $5,000 bail in which he was freed yesterday, until a new trial was held.

The minimum time Anderson would serve is nine months and twenty days on the provision that good behavior findings commutation. Unless the verdict is reversed Anderson will lose his citizenship and be considered a felon under the law.

VIENNA, Feb. 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The Austrian capital is suffering from a growing epidemic of suicides which are attributed to the widespread unemployment. The climax was reached on Thursday when eleven persons took their own lives during the twenty-four hours.

Klan Held Town Until Troopers Arrived

MURPHYSBORO, ILL., February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Miners employed in 12 collieries between Herrin and Murphysboro walked out today. When told they were organizing to "oust the Klan" while others said they objected to an anti-Klan clause in their contracts.

HERRIN, ILL., February 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Herrin, scene of the miners' riot of 1923, this morning was taken over by state troops as a result of near riot last night between "wets" and "drys" in which a constable was killed and a deputy sheriff wounded seriously.

Caesar Cagle, a constable, who had been issuing the warrants on which the "drys" conducted the raids, was shot dead. John Layman, deputy sheriff, who with Sheriff George Galligan, went to the anti-Klan meeting to remonstrate with the conferees to disperse and go to their homes in the interest of peace, was shot. He was taken to a local hospital by Mayor C. E. Anderson and Ora Thomas, anti-Klanman, and the trio is being guarded at the hospital by guardsmen.

The trouble is a result of the wholesale dry raids which have been conducted in this (Williamson) county recently by reputed members of the K. K. K., led by S. Glenn Young, postmaster of the Klan. A meeting of the Knights of the Flaming Circle, an anti-Klan organization, was in session when a crowd stormed the hall. The shooting followed.

Immediately a crowd gathered outside the hospital and began firing into the institution. Persons inside the hospital responded to the fire and a miniature battle waged for a short while.

The first guardsmen arrived from Carbondale at 4 a. m., and the "drys" then established headquarters at the city hall, several blocks from the hospital. The guardsmen are patrolling the hospital to protect the mayor, Layman and Thomas.

Five companies of troops arrived this morning. Crowds which visited the meeting hall of the anti-Klansmen, were headed by three of the four policemen of Herrin and the shouts of "lynch them," "string 'em up" were heard. Sheriff Galligan commanded an automobile and rushed the trio to Murphysboro to protect them. The three police are Chief John Ford and Policemen Crain and Sam Stephens.

Before the arrival of the troops, the raiders, armed with revolvers and shot guns, patrolled the streets of Herrin, denying any one they considered "suspicious" to pass. All unable to give the Klan pass word were searched for weapons.

Before attacking the hospital, the mob shot out the street lights so those within the institution could not see where to aim.

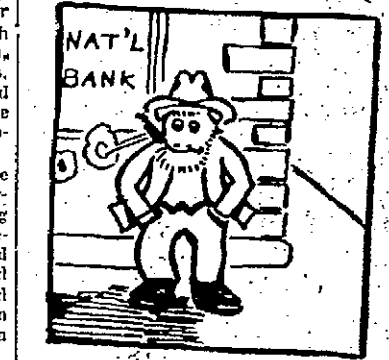

A number of the patients in the hospital became panic-stricken and were reported as highly nervous today.

A number of windows in the hospital were shot out and the building

Scouts Celebrating Anniversary Week

Scout Executive L. T. Henderson and his 400 Portsmouth Boy Scouts today celebrated the second day of Scout Anniversary week.

Each troop has been asked to put on a special demonstration of some kind, to call attention of the public to scout activities. The day will close with a huge council campfire in York Park, with plenty of "weiners," speaking, yelling and singing.

The activities of the week were impressively opened last night, when after gathering at Scout Headquarters, the united troops of the city marched in a body to the Gallie spanade at Chillicothe street, and repeated the scout oath in unison. Instructions for the remainder of the week were given and a general good time enjoyed after the boys returned to their headquarters.

Will Resume 'Phone Rate Hearing Monday

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—(By The A. P.)—Hearing on the application of the Ohio Bell Telephone company for an increase in long distance toll rates averaging approximately three cents per message, was continued today until next Monday, when the company will continue presentation of its evidence in support of its claim for higher rates.

President Charles F. Cooper of the company today testified that the proposed increase would add $343,683 to the net revenues of the company, and on a valuation of $22,502,000 would yield the company a return of 2.62 per cent. The valuation named by Mr. Cooper had been arrived at by the company's valuation engineers.

On Dreams

AFTER YEARS O' WAITIN'.

"The remarkable thing about these scientific days o' goat glands, constipation flights an' diabetes cures, is that some pryin' master mind hasn't discovered somethin' about dreams," declares Rev. Willy Tanager. "Dreams are placed under the head o' psychic phenomena, but the students o' psychology an' other scientifically inclined folks don't seem to take a bit o' stock in the strangeness o' dreams, an' whether it's because they don't know which end t' begin at or how t' tackle 'em, we don't know. But it seems t' me somethin' ought t' be done about dreams. There's no way t' guard agin 'em. Their liable t' come t' anybody, an' their mighty liable t' be scary. We know o' many instances o' prophetic warnins' that come with dreams that are almost incredible, but our scientific highbrows jest laugh at 'em an' call 'em mere coincidences. A young lady friend tells me she dreamed that she wuz t' marry a tall, dark stranger an' that her mother tried t' break it up. The next day she wuz passin' th' New Palace hotel an' a tall, dark, handsome stranger accosted her an' asked her if he hadn't met her before. A niece o' mine dreamed that she wuz presented with a set o' furs, an' in a day or two later, she wuz butted by a goat in front o' the lively stable. In 1917, I wuz in a city an' dreamed that I wuz pickin' up money by th' hat full. The next day, a street car conductor gave me change for a ten in nickels. A friend o' mine tells me that on two nights in succession, he dreamed that the wuz soli' t' have a lot o' trouble. What it wuz t' be wuz party vague, but it wuz goin' t' be awful. But he thought no more about it, an' before he knowed it somebody had talked him int' buyin' a big, heavy seven passenger, second hand car that had only gone 300 miles. One time after I'd been out o' th' theological seminary for three or four years, I dreamed I wuz goin' t' meet somebody I hadn't seen for a long time, so in th' mornin' I put on my best clothes an' got my hair cut an' wuz jest leavin' th' barber shop, when a stranger accosted me. 'Hello,' he said, 'I heard you lived around these parts.' He proved t' be a book agent I'd met while still in college, a feller I'd bought a set o' Wilkie Collins o' on payments. The balance due wuz somethin' like three or four dollars, but th' dream struck me as bein' most wonderful. Th' night before Lulu Bud's home wuz raided, he dreamed that a mouse had bored through th' cheese-cloth cover in th' bung hole an' had dropped int' his wine." Copyright Nat'l Newspaper Service

LETHAL GAS EXECUTION BRINGS INSTANT DEATH, DOCTORS SAY

CARSON CITY, NEV., Feb. 9.—(By The A. P.)—In the first lethal gas execution of record in the United States at the penitentiary here yesterday George Jon, long murderer, was officially pronounced dead two hours and forty-five minutes after a spray of liquid hydrocyanic was turned into the stone death chamber in the prison yard.

Official physicians estimated that the Chinese lapsed into unconsciousness after his first breath of the vaporized acid. Death, they said, came virtually instantly, although the condemned man's head continued to move up and down for six minutes. This movement of the head, they explained, probably was muscular reaction after death. The three doctors who officiated were agreed that the condemned man did not suffer.

Warden Denver S. Dickerson, taking every precaution to guard others from the effect of the gas, held the death chamber sealed from 9:40 a. m., the moment the acid was admitted, until 12:23 p. m. When guards, physicians and newspaper men entered the chamber, the odor of the gas was still pronounced. The physician warned the men to step back, saying that it was not yet safe to enter.

Examined By Doctors A few minutes later, guards went in and removed the body to the prison building where physicians made an examination. Major D. A. Turner, U. S. medical reserve corps, who was one of the official physicians, had announced before

New Building This Spring May Beat All Past Records

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—(By The A. P.)—Building activities throughout the United States will be of huge proportions this spring, and may exceed all previous records, according to reports made today by S. W. Strauss Company. Building departments of 262 major cities reported the largest volume of building permits for January in history, amounting to $233,318,070, a gain of ten per cent over 1923. This follows a record breaking building month in December.

New York gained $10,000,000 over last January; Los Angeles gained $1,000,000, and Philadelphia $2,100,000.

The eight leading cities in point of January building permits ranked with the amount as follows: New York $76,000,000; Chicago $14,117,110; Los Angeles $13,155,720; Philadelphia $6,642,523; Detroit $7,122,376; Cleveland $4,391,250; Baltimore $3,228,000; and Boston 3,503,701.

Bandits Raid Banks

DETROIT, Feb. 8.—(By The A. P.)—Two armed men held up the Atlas Plan Bank of Hamtramck, a suburb, and after securely tying the clerk, Raymond Domolovsky, ransacked the money drawers and escaped in an automobile with approximately $3,500. The robbery occurred shortly after noon.

With everyone of the thirty-three members of the official board of the First Christian church voting enthusiastically in favor of the ratification of the recommendation of the site committee, the above congregation came into possession of the beautiful York home on Rose Ridge, last night, when a special house meeting was held to take action. The church, in addition to the house comes into possession of two lots to the west of the home and extending from Fourth street to Third street, giving the congregation a site 115x211 feet, and one of the most strategic sites for a church home in the city. The property was purchased from Chas. C. Hoyt, and he is said to his credit, he made the congregation a very liberal price concession, although it is quite likely that more was paid for this site than has yet been expended for church property in this city. Of course the deal needs to be ratified by the congregation, but this will not be given on Sunday morning when the board's action will be up for consideration.

For many years the congregation, recognized as one of the real live religious bodies of this city, has worshipped under many difficulties at Third and Gay streets. The present building has been hit by so many expenditures of money to put it into first class condition. Even at that the church is deserving of a better site and a most spacious house of worship. It is not the intention of the congregation to build at once, and it may be a year before ground is broken for the new building. For some time the members have been paying into a building fund, and the congregation was never in a better condition from a financial standpoint—and spiritually as well. The unanimity with which the board acted, last evening, was an indication of the splendid feeling that prevails.

Friends of the church believe the move taken by the official board, which gives the congregation a tract of land extending from Fourth to Third streets, is the most progressive step the church has taken in years. Rev. Gerald Culberson was employed at the action of the board and expressed himself as being one of the happiest persons in the entire world.

The deal was closed by R. G. Spangler of the Wertz Realty Co., Mr. Spangler is a member of the church and the church profited handsomely as the result of the handling of the proposition by the Wertz Realty Co.

Fraught With Peril "Aren't these motorcycles dangerous?" "Extremely" dangerous," answered Mr. Chugstun. "They're what the road cops use to slip up and arrest you."

North Moreland To Get Modern School Building

That there will be no delay in the work of providing North Moreland with a first class school building and one that will fully meet the needs of that community, was evidenced last night when the City Board of Education listened to five representatives of architectural firms present preliminary plans and specifications and then adjourned to meet in special session next Friday night to decide in all probability on an architect for the new school.

All three local architectural firms were represented at the meeting. Both members of Ridenour and Wile and of DeVoss and Donaldson, attended. G. G. Kenny appeared for C. C. Taylor and Son.

E. W. Buckart was first to appear before the Board, representing O. D. Howard Co., of Columbus. His plans called for erection of an eight room English type of structure, with proper provision for future additions. His perspective showed a gabled roof, the entire project constituting an innovation among local school structures, but received favorably by the Board. Estimated cost was given at $165,000. Only a fuel cellar was provided, however, no basement being planned.

Ridenour and Wile presented a completely detailed set of preliminary drawings and perspective, calling for erection of a two floor, eight room structure of the Gothic type, with provision for enlargement to either 12 or 18 rooms. Estimated cost, including the highest type of fire proof construction and a sewage disposal plant, was said to be about $105,000 capable of enlargement to the full size of 18 rooms seating 44 pupils each, at a total cost of $110,000.

C. B. Richards of the firm of Richards, McCarty and Bulford, Columbus offered a set of plans used in a school previously constructed elsewhere, and views of the completed building. His estimates, figured from the cubic feet costs, approximated $70,000.

DeVoss and Donaldson were the last to appear, having drawn the short straw at an impromptu session held by the architects to determine order of appearance. Their room plan called for adequate provision for additions, steam heating system and sewage disposal system. Cost was estimated at $72,000 for the complete structure, with re-enforcement concrete construction throughout, with a saving of several thousand dollars possible by adoption of warm air heating, cheaper type of floor construction in hallways, and use of metal lumber.

Reverting to routine business, the Board purchased seven typewriters and replacements at the high school. The bid of the Remington agency was accepted, calling for allowance of $105 on the purchase price for the old machine making the net cost $390.

Time for the spring vacation was set as the week of March 16, on recommendation of Supt. Appel.

The schedule amounted to $3,459.27, which was allowed.

When a bill was presented for renewal of an insurance policy, objection was expressed when it was found to be in a mutual organization, and the matter was referred to Solicitor Stierand M. Johnson for an opinion whether the school Board can become part of an insurance organization.

Supt. of Buildings Walter Kogelke was authorized to have city water connected to the plumbing system at Lafayette School, at a cost not to exceed $250.

A request of the Kendall Avenue Baptist Church for permission to conduct services in the basement of the Garfield school while their new church is being built, was referred without action.

Responsibility of collecting rent for use of the gymnasium at the High School, was given Supt. Appel.

The Bureau of Community Service disclosed plans to open a new medical clinic when a letter from the director, Miss Blanche H. Lowe, was read, asking use of the old Library Building, until recently headquarters of the Boy Scouts, at Fifth and Court streets. No action was taken, pending an investigation in whether or not the property can be sold. If this proves impractical the building will be put to some use.

Appointment by Supt. Appel of two new teachers at Sciotoville, Misses Kathryn Fisher and Nina Baker, was confirmed.

Application by Anna T. Cramer for use of the high school auditorium on the evening of April 11 for a recital by her music class, to which no admission will be charged, was granted, subject to a fee of $15.

The Board met without the services of Clerk W. C. Hazelbeck. In his absence Supt. Appel kept records during the meeting.

Anderson

Anderson was convicted of forgery in violating the league's books by transferring money from the salary account to the expense account of O. Hertsell Phillips, a fund collector.

Justice Tompkins said Anderson's crime was "deliberately committed," and aggravated "by some of his testimony which was obviously untrue."

In pronouncing sentence Friday Supreme Court Justice Tompkins said: "This crime was deliberately committed and aggravated by some of his testimony, which was obviously untrue."

The sentence followed an impassioned plea for clemency by former Governor Charles S. Whitman, Anderson's chief counsel, and an appeal by Ferdinand Pecora, assistant district attorney, that the youth "should be such as to satisfy the public that justice has been done and that the law is no respecter of persons."

Out On Bail
Anderson was freed in $5,000 bail on a stay of execution to permit Mr. Whitman to seek a certificate of reasonable doubt, which the trial court refused to grant.

Arguments for a certificate will be heard by the court on February 15. As he left the courtroom, Anderson was served with papers in a $105,000 libel suit brought against the league, of which he is still superintendent, by Francis Cortright of Corning, N. Y., who has accused the league of having libeled him in literature distributed throughout the district in which he was candidate for the state assembly in 1922.

Judge Reviews Case
Justice Tompkins recalled that Anderson was found guilty of forgery in the third degree on an indictment alleging he had falsified the books of the league by transferring the sum of $4,000 from the salary account of O. Hertsell Phillips, a fund collector, to Phillips' expense account. At the outset the court remarked that a suspended sentence was customary where a defendant had confessed and said he was sorry, and when boys committed crimes.

"But this is not the case," declared the court. "This crime was deliberately committed. After the defendant's attention had been called to the fact that Phillips' salary account had been improperly charged, some days elapsed before the alteration was made. He has not confessed and he did not plead guilty. He stood trial and was convicted. His case was further aggravated by some of his testimony, which was obviously untrue."

Evident Contradictions
"Some of his testimony could not have been true if the statements in his affidavit to the league were true. I refer to his stating that he raised the money placed to the league by mortgaging his house in Baltimore. This is not a proper case for a fine because the law does not permit it. It is not a proper case for the reformatory because of the age of the defendant. It is not a case for the penitentiary because he might be detained there three years. The sentence is that you be confined in the state prison for not less than one year and not more than two years."

Mr. Whitman first moved that the verdict be set aside and a new trial ordered, asserting the facts failed to establish Anderson's guilt.

Fair Trial, Says Judge
Justice Tompkins said that the facts actually had been undisputed and that the question of intent had been decided by the jury, which he believed was amply supported in its verdict by the facts. The court said Anderson received a fair trial, was ably defended and had been given the benefit of every reasonable doubt.

Mr. Whitman said he based his petition on Anderson's past good reputation "unblemished for forty years" and pointed out that Anderson "is head of a movement believed in by millions of our citizens."

"I also call the attention of the court to the fact that nothing has been established here to show he did anything that was of any harm to any cause or to any person," continued Mr. Whitman. "There was no injury to any one. No loss, no fraud was committed through which any one suffered, and I venture to go further and say that nothing was established by which any one can suffer or be wronged."

Pecora's Answer
Mr. Pecora said Anderson had been tried by a jury of his own choosing, that the court had been scrupulous in safeguarding the defendant's rights and that Anderson's position as head of the prohibition movement had nothing to do with his position before the court.

"I think the verdict must be accepted by the court as amply justified by the evidence," added the prosecutor. "It is a fair inference from the evidence that this defendant committed grand larceny in the first degree by taking willfully $24,700 from the league. It also must be evident that perjury was committed by this defendant at his trial."

The argument for a certificate of reasonable doubt will be heard by Supreme Court Justice Wagner. If the motion is denied, Anderson must go at once to Sing Sing prison and begin serving sentence. An appeal will not save him from a cell.

MINFORD SENDS OUT S. O. S. CALL

Save! O Save! This time the call comes not from the wilds of heathen Africa, from the flooded plains of China, nor from earthquake-racked Japan, but from the distressed citizens of Minford, hamlet of our beloved Scioto county. The call is not for food for clothing, for warmth, nor yet for the gospel, but for transportation routes—for roads.

Nor must it be thought bombastic in the association of this cry of distress from Minford with great calamities in remote parts of the world. The distress is real. Minford is isolated from the rest of Christendom by a few miles of impassable mudholes. Our marauders are unable to replenish their stock with things their customers must have at a time when such things are needed most. Patients have to wait for medical aid while our doctor pines his machine from mudholes. Children suffer with cold, and are late to school because the school bus goes into a mudhole and the driver has to gather up the neighbors to help him out. We get our mail in the afternoon instead of the morning on account of the condition of the roads to Sciotoville. Patrons of the rural route get their mail one day late for the same reason. Our rural carrier on the Lucasville route is forced to walk seven miles to deliver the mail along the Long Run and the Glendale roads. Our high school teachers have to park their cars three miles from here and walk to school in the morning and back to their car in the evening. We are compelled to remain in practical isolation, no matter how urgent our business in other places.

Travelers from other parts speak their disgust in no uncertain terms and brand our roads as the worst they have ever seen. Newcomers from other, presumably less favored states, taking our roads as a sample, express surprise that Ohio's roads are so inferior to those of their own state.

We have traveled in various parts of the country at all times of the year, but never saw anything approaching the conditions that we have here, and we challenge anyone to find there parallel in any other place. Properly, we will not permit the use of language necessary to express our spoken anathemas that well up in our soul. Where are they, whose self-vaunted ability caused the people to entrust the keeping of our highway to their care? Oh, that some Daniel might have seen our calamity and repaired the Glendale road early last summer before the Long Run road was closed! Instead no preparation whatever was made for the afflic which would naturally be thrown on other roads when the main one was closed. Not until after the detour signs closing the Long Run road were erected was anything done. Then the grader was put to work on the Glendale road with no apparent object other than to make its condition such that two machines could not pass without one going into the ditch. The result is a veritable hole, a disgrace to the name of civilization.

If any think we have exaggerated, we invite them to our village; they will find rather that conditions have been under stated. Where is our relief? Will some one kindly point the way?

Agricultural Notes

EDITORIAL NOTE—These articles are written by an expert and The Times unhesitatingly advises their careful reading. They will be of great profit to you.

Farmers' Week

Optimism prevailed at the annual gathering of farmers at the Ohio State University during the past week. If there were such a creature as a weak-kneed pessimist on the campus at the beginning of the week, he certainly would by necessity have been red clothed with the spirit of "a better day in agriculture" not to be expected from the hand of government agencies or some other mysterious or miraculous source, but by the cooperative effort of farmers such as is now being effected everywhere in the grand old state of Ohio.

The two most important agencies to accomplish this, that are now and will continue to prevail, are more efficient production and more orderly distribution of farm products, a result of standardization and cooperative marketing facilities.

This is the thought of those who attended this annual event from Scioto county, among whom were Chas. N. Frank, Chas. Delt, Otto Zoellner, Mr. and Mrs. John Stockham, Frank Moulton, Alan Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Corwin Knowles, James Richardson, B. E. Foote and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gahm.

Farm Meeting
Community meetings will be held in all parts of the county this month beginning at Minford Tuesday evening, 7:30 at the high school auditorium. A feature of this meeting will be a playlet entitled "They Knew How," given by the farm women of the community. Mr. Otto Zoellner will talk on Cooperative Marketing for Scioto county.

Reports will be heard from the project leaders on the different activities in the community during the past year, and a plan of work presented for the Minford community for the coming year.

W. F. Gahm will speak briefly on the seed corn situation in Scioto county, as revealed at the Corn Show at Lucasville. Directions for selecting seed corn will be given in printed form to those present.

Other meetings to be held next week are at Empire Grange hall, Wednesday, Feb. 13, 7:30 p. m. Lucasville Community hall, Thursday, Feb. 14, 7:30 p. m. Scioto Friday, Feb. 15, 7:30 p. m. Henley Saturday, Feb. 16, 7:30 p. m.

Announcements if the other meetings of the county will be made later.

himself a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination. It was Senator Reed who insisted on recalling Mr. Doherty to the stand which developed the fact that Mr. Doherty had employed Mr. McAdoo as counsel in Mexican matters.

The issue on which Mr. McAdoo was employed was an international question and one in which the Department of State through Republican and Democratic administrations has taken the same position, namely that certain provisions of the Mexican constitution were confiscatory of American property.

McAdoo's Association Legitimate.
But the part that Mr. McAdoo played in getting a fee for a legitimate piece of advice is not really on trial. Mr. McAdoo violated neither the Federal statutes nor the ethics of his profession nor the governmental code. To accept large fees from corporations however has always been known in Democratic politics as an obstacle to the candidacy of such a person, the theory being that being enveloped in the influence of big corporations stifles the passion of an individual for the people as a whole whose theoretical enemy in days gone by the corporations were supposed to be.

Except for the fact that John W. Davis of West Virginia, for instance, a capable lawyer and an international figure, it was not an attorney for the people as a whole whose theoretical enemy in days gone by the corporations were supposed to be.

Police had little information to work on in their search for the murderers. The elevator boy was the only person who had seen the two men and it was from his descriptions that police hoped they might be able to identify the men.

Daughter Of Merchant
In their probe of Miss Lawson's life, police learned that she was the daughter of a prominent merchant of Walnut Springs, Texas; that she had played small parts in motion pictures, but for two years or more had been unemployed. Living in her luxurious apartment which still was filled with the fragrance of fresh cut flowers when her body was found.

They learned she had been a member of the gay party that ended in the death of Angier B. Duke, wealthy tobacco manufacturer, at Greenwich, Conn., last September. Pictures of an army lieutenant and of a middle aged man were on her dressing table. The middle aged man, it was learned, was Gerald M.

Dahl, chairman of the executive board of the Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit company, vice president of the Chase National Bank, and a member of the brokerage firm of Hayden Stone & company. On the back of the photograph was inscribed "Gerry Dahl."

Will Meet Police
Mr. Dahl was communicated with by telephone and he arranged a conference with the police. What happened there was told by Fred Landek, a New York lawyer, who said he had been a friend of Dahl since they had been classmates at the University of Wisconsin.

On a dresser stood a photograph of an army officer and one of Gerald M. Dahl, chairman of the executive committee of the Brooklyn Manhattan Transit Corporation, broker, who, police learned, had been interested in the young woman.

Thomas Kane, elevator man, furnished police with their most valuable clue of the friendly interest that Wednesday night's description of two men who said they were ex-priests, who visited the apartment early yesterday. One carried a brown parcel.

Theft The Motive
Police advanced the theory they were bootleggers who had been attracted by jewels Miss Lawson wore, and by other articles they had seen in her apartment; robbery, they said, was the motive of the crime.

The young woman came here from her home in Walnut Springs, Texas, six years ago, to study music and make her living as a mannequin and as a motion picture actress. She played one or two roles in cinema productions.

Mr. Dahl was but one of her socially prominent friends. She was a friend of the late Angier B. Duke, and was one of those at the party which ended in his drowning at Greenwich, Conn., last September. She had a motor car at her disposal, it was said.

Mr. Dahl spent several hours yesterday explaining to the police his friendship with the young woman. The elevator man said Dahl had been a frequent caller at the West Seventy-seventh street house and was seen leaving there Wednesday night. Police asserted they had found in the apartment a record showing Miss Lawson owned $12,000 in R. M. T. stock.

Fred Landek, a lawyer, explained that the transit executive knew the girl's parents and that he had been interested in her musical education.

Charges

Read Stack's Complaint
At the outset of today's session the committee heard the bill of complaint in Stack's suit against the Pioneer Oil Company and the Mammoth Oil Company for $5,000, claimed under his contract with the Pioneer Company to use it in obtaining leases in the Teapot Dome field. Stack charges that the Pioneer Company had entered into a conspiracy with Sinclair by which it withdrew practically all of its applications for the lease surrendered all its rights to Sinclair and allowed Sinclair to get the lease, thereby defeating Stack's just rights under his contract. It appeared Stack originally had a contract with E. L. Doherty to get leases on a double set of offset wells in the Salt River field.

Replying to questions by Walsh, Democrat, Montana, Bonilla said that there was a conspiracy between Doherty and Sinclair and the Standard Oil. Allied companies to let Sinclair have the Teapot Dome as far as they were concerned.

Treated Stack Like Office Boy
The feeling with Sinclair was not friendly to Mr. Stack (J. Leo Stack—son of those associated with Bonilla). They treated him like an office boy and thought they could get the oil from him.

During his testimony yesterday the witness said he and Stack, with H. H. Tamm, his partner, and H. H. Schwartz, his attorney, negotiated a settlement with Sinclair, the proceeds of which were split four ways. This settlement, he said, took place after the Post had published an article attacking the Teapot Dome situation but had deferred publication of other stories on the same subject because of a fear of libel suits.

Denies Paper Had Anything To Do With It
Bonilla emphatically denied that the attitude of his paper had anything to do with the contract of settlement.

In the midst of a vigorous cross-examination, Chairman Lenroot asked whether "the matter of your attack on Sinclair" was discussed at the conference with Sinclair.

"No, sir," Bonilla replied. "I was asked the matter of your ceasing your attacks on Sinclair discussed."

"I would like to know what instigated these questions. Did they emanate from Colorado?"

"I am asking these questions on my responsibility as a senator and you will please answer them."

"It is an extraordinary question and I want the record to show the answer."

Pressed as to whether the attacks on Sinclair in his paper had not been stopped, Mr. Bonilla leaned across the table and said:

Never Shall Cease
"They did not cease. They have not ceased. They never shall cease."

Senator Lenroot read a telegram which said there had been an article on the subject in the Post from September 15, 1922, to December 3, 1922.

The telegram added that there was some deleting most of 1923 containing any reflection upon Sinclair.

"We printed the news every day," said Mr. Bonilla.

"Any editorial comment concerning these transactions?"

"I do not think there were."

"Do you mean to testify that there was no change in the attitude of your newspaper concerning these transactions from the beginning?"

"I do."

"You had vigorously attacked Mr. Sinclair and these oil transactions up to a certain time?"

"We printed that it was a bad lease and I still think it was."

"You think it was a bad, corrupt deal, do you not?"

"We were not blaming Mr. Sinclair for it."

Referring to the sending of a reporter to New Mexico, Chairman Lenroot asked whether Bonilla, who had yesterday described the disclosures brought back as "a shocking" had failed to print the articles merely because of the possibility of libel suits.

Bonilla replied in the affirmative. "Do you believe Mr. Fall could have been corrupt and Mr. Sinclair not?"

"Most of my information referred to Mr. Fall's affairs and had very little to do with the Teapot Dome."

"Why did you not send the information before called upon by the committee?"

ject: "The Spirit of Lincoln."
The evening service will omit the regular sermon and present a stereotypical lecture with about 50 new slides. The Ladies' Octet will sing one or two selections, all preceded by the usual song service.
The Ladies' Aid has raised $875 during the year 1923 and is more alive than ever before.

ALLEN CHAPEL CHURCH

Twelfth and Waller streets
T. D. Scott, Pastor
Sunday School, 9 a. m., John H.
Jackson, superintendent. A big attendance is expected in every department, with the men's class hanging up a new record. Rev.
Scott and Frank W. Jackson are teachers of these classes. The slogan is "Bring one." Teachers and officers should be on time. Let's go over the top.
Morning preaching service, 10:15.
Sermon by the pastor. Every officer and member should endeavor to be present. We welcome strangers and friends. Music by the senior choir, Mrs. H. W. Waller, leader.
A. C. B. League 6 p. m., Mrs. L. E.
White, president. This is a service for all grown folks as well as the young people.
The Brotherhood will meet at 3 o'clock. We hope to have a big attendance of men. There will be a fine program. Come spend one hour with us. Dr. W. H. Lowe, president.

10 A. M.—Sunday School, Howard Rapp, Supt.
11 A. M.—Public worship: sermon
by the pastor.
Wednesday evening—Epworth League Devotional meeting.
Ladies' Aid will meet for their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl Coriell.

SCIOVILLE M. E. CHURCH

C. W. Brady, Pastor
Sunday School 9:00 a. m.
Carl Rehs, superintendent.
Attorney W. L. Hostetter, teacher of the men's class.
We have a church building well equipped for Sunday School purposes.
We also have an efficient group of teachers in each department. If you in some other school, you have our cordial invitation to unite with us. At least pay us a visit.
Our revival begins Sunday evening.
We hope that people will come from near and far and get the benefit of these meetings. Special music each evening, sometimes by the large Junior choir led by Rev. Freeman Chase, sometimes by older people. John McMillan of Portsmouth, very popular with Sciotoville folk, will add much to the attractiveness of the music. A male quartet consisting of Messrs. Higginbotham, Rehs, Yost and Rev. Chase will sing Sunday evening and of course we could not forget the pleasure of a solo from Mr. McMillan.
Morning service 10:00 o'clock. Subject: "Successful Soul Winning."
Evening service, 7:00 o'clock. Subject: "A Faithful Warning."
Epworth League service 6:00 p. m.
Evangelistic services each evening next week at 7:15 o'clock. The pastor will do the preaching. Gospel sermons straight out from the shoulder.

FRANKLIN AVE. M. E. Church

Chas. E. Seeveringhaus, Pastor
Frank Klefer, S. S. superintendent.
Sunday school at 9 o'clock. The Men's Bible class will have the pleasure and privilege of hearing attorney and noted speaker of this city, on the "Life of Lincoln."
His subject alone should be a decided inducement, patriotically, and together with the ability of the speaker, it is a foregone conclusion that it will prove a Sunday morning well spent for all enrolled members.
Let nothing deter your presence, and bring, or invite, visitors. All are welcome.

C. T. Grant, Pastor

Sunday school 9 a. m., Arthur
Coley, Supt. Mrs. A. Hazelbaker, Assistant.
Preaching service 10:30 a. m.
Subject: "The Special Altitude, or 'Demand Proof'."
Special singing by our male quartette at this service.

RAIDEN

"Martyrs and Heroes." Subject for evening sermon: "The Christian's Expatriation."
Junior League at 2 P. M.
Devotional meeting of the Senior and Intermediate Leagues at 6:15 P.
M.
Young people you are urged to attend these meetings.
Morning Music—Mrs. W. F. Staker.

A Glorious Failure

Lloyd George recently said in commenting upon the death of ex-President Woodrow Wilson, "True
he was a failure, but a glorious failure. He failed as Jesus Christ failed, and like Christ, sacrificed his life in pursuance of his noble ideal." Inspired by this utterance the communion meditation at the First United Brethren church Sunday morning at ten-thirty will be "A Glorious Failure." All members and the public generally will find a welcome at this service.
In the evening at seven o'clock the Sunday evangelistic service will be conducted by the pastor. The revival song books will be used with the piano, organ and large splendid revival atmosphere and another capacity audience is expected again this Sunday evening.
A welcome awaits all at the buffet table church with the large stone columns at the corner of Seventh and Gay.

SOCIETY

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends was solemnized this morning in the presence of the United Brethren church on Orford street when Miss Helen Licht, attractive young daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. William Licht of 1442 Grant street, became the bride of Mr. William Smith, son of Mrs. J.
M. Smith, of 625 Fourth street.
The ceremony was performed at six o'clock by Rev. E. H. Dailey, and the young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Altemeyer. After a wedding breakfast for the immediate family at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for Cincinnati, where they will spend a few days. Upon their return they will make their home for the present with the bride's parents.

PHILATHEA CLASS

First Baptist church, 200 members and friends wanted as pictures of class will be taken.

IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH

New Boston
Sunday School 9 a. m. Lesson,
"The Crisis at Kadesh"—Num.
14:1-10.
Worship 10 a. m. Subject, "Love, Spiration and Separation."
Young People's meeting, 6:15 p. m.
Worship, 7:15 p. m. Subject, "Defending a Plot of Leuities and Slay-ing a Lion in a Pit on a Snowy Day."
The great secret of victory in any undertaking is to be able to count on the help of God. He who is in the way of God's leading may expect His aid and need fear nothing that may come against him. God honors the faith of those who go forward in His name and enables them to triumph over all opposition.
The Boy Scouts will attend in a body at the evening service, at which time the pastor will bring a message of help to the boys.
The people of New Boston and vicinity are invited to all of the services. Come and you will get a welcome at the hand-clasp church.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I want to ask you a question. I am a nice young man and I have to work night turn occasionally at the mill. Now Dolly I go on at midnight and in order not to have my mother get up, or sit up for me, I usually go to the last show at some picture theatre and put in the time that way until it is time to report for duty. Dolly when I come out of the show there are two girls who always follow me. At first I thought that they might be going my way and I did not pay any attention to them. When they kept it up I decided to change my route and one night I went eight blocks out of my way and they followed me just the same. Now what do you suppose they do this for? I am not good looking.

WORRIED MAN.
You had better watch your step as they may want to kidnap you. I can't think of any other reason why.

they would want to follow you night after night, without catching up with you. If they continue to annoy you why don't you report them to the police?

Dear Dolly—I saw in the Times where some reader wanted a remedy for frost bites and I have a very good one that I shall be glad to give anyone who may want it.

A TIMES READER
I have this lady's name and address and if the person with the frost feet will call me up I will give it to her.

Dear Dolly—How much should a girl of 12 years weigh who is 60 inches tall? Also a woman of 36 who is 64 inches tall? One more question—how long is the Ohio river?

THANK YOU.
A girl of 12 should be 50.0 inches tall and weigh 78.3 pounds; a girl of 13 should be 58.2 inches tall and weigh 88.7 pounds. A woman of 36, who is five feet and two inches tall, should weigh 133 pounds. The Ohio river is 950 miles long.

Dear Dolly—I am sixteen years of age and in the seventh grade, and I want to know if you think that I could get a job. I haven't gone to school for a year and I don't want to go now.

M. G. D.
You can't get much of a job, as you are too young to work regular when you are too young to work regular.

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all the advantages of grandmothers mustard plaster. WITOUT the blister. You just apply it with the finger. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, cramp, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back, joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frozen feet, colds of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu."

No Mothers! Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

hours, so I would advise you to go back to school for a year or two if your parents can afford to send you. Even if you were older, your lack of education would keep you from getting a worth while position.

Dear Dolly—Please let me know through your column if there are any women in Portsmouth who make hair switches.

O. E. L.
I will send this information to you Monday or Tuesday. In the meantime I would like to have the names and addresses of all the women in the city who make hair switches, as I often have requests for this information.

Dear Dolly—I am 15 years of age and going with the boys. My mother and father do not care for me going with them. I let one boy take me home and he asked me for a date, and he never came back to fill it.

Now Dolly, do you think I should let him come back any more? And Dolly, do you know a good remedy for a boy who wants to kiss you?

INDIGNANT GIRL.
You are too young to have boy callers and certainly too young to indulge in petting parties. You might powder your face with quinine if you can't keep him from spooning any first. If you have a good strong fist, you might use it to good advantage, when he begins to act up.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl George of City View entertained a group of merry little folks Saturday afternoon in honor of their little daughter, Margaret, fourth birthday anniversary. The table was decorated with red candles and hearts. Little Miss Genevieve Noel was given a favor for finding the most hearts in a contest.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following little folks: George and Richard Youngman, Hobbie and Norman Baker, Harriet and Stanley Lewis, Joan Wetzel, Katherine and Virginia Evans, Genevieve and Charlotte Noel, Earl Silver, Eugene Burrell, Billie Prince, Florence Bolton, Geraldine Pifer, Helen Lathrop, Howard Henderson, Jr., Jimmie and Ralph Waldo, Jr. and Janet George.

The children of the Children's Mission Band of Bigelow M. E. church pleased a large audience last evening with the presentation of "Mother Goose," a playlet including a number of pretty drills and songs.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Trinity M. E. Church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Hawkins, 1223 Twenty-first street, for the presentation of a report of the National Convention and Mrs. W. H. Plummer will have charge of the program.

The assistant hostesses will include Mrs. Plumer Knott, Mrs. Harry Donaldson, Mrs. Emil Thiers, Mrs. J. B. Mayo, B. S. Miller, Mrs. O. E. Chinn, Mrs. James Finney, Mrs. R. E. Scott, Mrs. L. H. Marsh, Mrs. Louis Steahly and Mrs. H. A. Reelford.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hall of the West Side entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of their guests, Mrs. Barbara Daniels and Mrs. A. L. Goss of Ironton. Covers were laid for the following guests: Mrs. Barbara Daniels, Mrs. A. L. Goss, Mrs. Katherine Boyd and daughter, Mrs. Jesse Lavinder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brisker, Mrs. Theobald and George Lenhart, the honor-guests, and the host and hostess.

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all the advantages of grandmothers mustard plaster. WITOUT the blister. You just apply it with the finger. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, cramp, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back, joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frozen feet, colds of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu."

No Mothers! Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

Terminals Boys Active, Reports Show

The Boys' Department of the Terminals Y. M. C. A. was established through the efforts of General Secretary John F. Dindley, November 1st, 1923, by calling a boys' work secretary, who was assigned to the Community program. After a brief survey of the field an athletic program with a definite objective was set in motion which obtained an immediate response from the boys of a needy and neglected field. A boys' work committee was organized. Leaders were trained, a club room opened and an athletic room established through the cooperation of the Terminals M. E. Church, and while working with limited facilities, the new department submits the following gratifying reports:

Boxer To Begin Sentence

GREEN CASTLE, Ind., Feb. 9.—Charles "Chuck" Wiggins, Indianapolis prize-fighter wanted here to serve a term of from two to five years in the state reformatory, came into court this afternoon and a few minutes later was on his way to Pendleton to begin his sentence. He had been in Florida recently, training for a boxing contest. Wiggins was convicted here on a charge of escaping from the state penal farm, to which he had been sentenced for contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He appealed to the state supreme court but the appeal was denied.

Legislative Action Needed For State Office Building Project, It's Claimed

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—(By the A. P.)—Considering themselves restricted by present law to using the old Columbus city hall site in East State street as the site for new proposed state office building, the office building commission today voted to ask legislative leaders whether they deem it advisable to call the legislature into special session for the purpose of amending the law so the commission might consider building on the capitol grounds or on some other site. Present appropriations made available and the wording of the law, members of the commission declare, practically prohibits their consideration of other sites than the old city hall building for temporary state use. One Plan Disapproved
The commission also heard reports from its committee of architects denouncing the proposed tower on the present capitol building as proposed by Architect McLaughlin of Lima and for which two members of the commission have expressed preference, and advising that the only practical building to be erected on the present grounds would be an "U" shaped structure on the East side of the capitol. No plans for this "U" building were presented, however. It would incorporate the present annex or judiciary building, or contemplate its removal. The architects were ordered to prepare sketches of the proposed "U" building. The architects were also directed to ascertain what development could be made on the city hall site, also on a site opposite the capitol on Third street, as proposed by the Columbus chamber of commerce. THE TYRANNY OF YOUTH

HE overestimate of youth is a phase of weakness. The disposition to lament its passing is an evidence that one has not found the secret of a happy life.

Youth is the time of enthusiasms, bright hopes and hot desires. The tendency of the immature mind is to consider these things the best part of existence.

If we are fortunate enough to acquire any wisdom as we grow older we find that contentment does not lodge in these things, but is a prize to be gained by the normal use of our will, our intelligence and our skill in self-mastery.

The sentiment which crops out so often in poetry and in novels that the joy of life's morning is all that's worth while is closely akin to cynicism.

For it leads to cynicism and to despair when the early period is once past.

The impression you get from the average novel is that the interesting part of life is over when the young people are married and done for.

As a matter of fact, the best part of life ought to be after fifty.

We begin life as young animals. We ought to wind it up as great spirits. And age is better than youth, precisely as the life of the spirit is better than the life of the flesh; precisely as an intelligent human being ought to be happier than an unthinking animal.

The average American family is dominated by the children.

This is bad for them and for everybody else. It makes them intolerant, selfish and disagreeable. And it reduces their parents to a state of peonage.

The truth that every parent ought to know is that if a child's youth is to be a permanent asset in his life it must be made a period of discipline rather than of self-indulgence.

No one wants to go back to the heartless, callous and unsympathetic system of treating children. They should have their full portion of love, appreciation and understanding. But at the same time they should be made to realize that life is not a matter of having a good time.

It is a matter of self-mastery, of honor and of heroism. Such qualities alone bring permanent happiness. And such qualities do not grow in a soil of continual indulgence.

It is not a choice between whether one shall be happy when he is old or when he is young. It is rather an intelligent taking up of the problem how so to govern the pleasures of all our days with temperance as to make one's whole life worth while.

AS the newspaper man looks over exchanges coming from various parts of the country, he is impressed with the great use that is being made of advertising. The advertising space used in newspapers has greatly increased.

Take the big city dailies, for instance. If you took the newspaper which before the war used to run an average of about 16 pages, the chances are that that paper will be running today from 24 pages to 32. The enlargement is not primarily due to the use of more news, though the space given to reading matter has increased. The big share of the increase is due to advertising.

It is interesting also to see how many concerns and interests there are that are taking big ads of a half page or full page, or two pages, that must be very expensive. The trained eye looks over these notices and it can guess fairly near what was paid for them. In the majority of the cases appearances indicate that the newspaper was running its advertisements on a strictly proportionate schedule, in which the interest of both the large and the small advertiser were fairly balanced, and in which cases the big advertiser must pay a high price for his big splurge.

The fact that so many concerns are willing to put up the money for this big display shows how thoroughly standardized advertising has become, and how much it is depended upon for results by those who use it persistently and with judgment. Fortunes are being made every day through advertising, and by this means a multitude of business men are rising out of small and inferior positions into leadership in the business community.

When a man begins to think the boss can't get along without him, the boss can't get along with him.

Even the pedestrian may have a flat or two, but he never loses control of the steering apparatus.

Chewing gum may not be so nice but it is in good taste.

Beauty secret: It takes a little nerve to use rouge but the men will like your cheek.

Raising a baby scientifically would be all right if you could get it to be scientific in its crying.

At any rate the modern drama has inspired the creation of some nifty bedroom furnishings.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O. G. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—High-jackers will find one cellar on Long Island immune from their burglary attacks. It is owned by a prominent New York business man, and is cut in solid rock. The liquor is valued at a million and was bought before prohibition.

Inside it is lined with steel. The first door is like those on huge safes. When it is opened it sounds an alarm at the police station and in the owner's house and garage. The second door is the same type used in safety deposit vaults and has a time lock.

Should the owner be trapped in the vault by raiders there are five different concealed bells on the floor he may step on and bring immediate assistance. There are also a number of innocent looking bottles that will explode when picked up.

The cellar represents an expenditure of $80,000. The liquor stored there cost $50,000 at pre-war prices. The Long Island mansions are the targets for rum raiders. On some of the estates you see signs reading: "No liquors on the premises" and "This estate is patrolled by armed guards."

In the homes of the rich in New York a special guard is always on duty to protect the wine cellar. So fearful are owners of betrayal that they do not trust the keys to anyone. Combinations and locks are often changed monthly.

The rich man here is apparently not judged by his millions but by his cellar. Strangely enough they are not men who are steady drinkers.

One of the new hotels has a new time saver for the hurried business man. It is a barber chair luncheon. One may be bartered and at the same time be served with a dainty repast.

Another one of those senseless phrases has bobbed up. It is just as meaningless as predecessors. It is "So's your old man!"

A pocket piano has been invented for song pluggers in Tin Pan Alley. The instruments are five octaves in length and may be folded up like umbrellas. The pocket piano comes from England.

The nearest thing to London's Cheesecake is Old Tom's Choppe House at 115 Cedar Street. It was established in 1790 and a weather beaten sign "The Only Entrance" still hangs. There are still old powder stens and portable meat pudding tureens and a savor of English customs. The patrons gather there and enjoy the freedom of the pipe.

I saw a pale, pale-faced woman crossing the "Bridge of Sighs" with an officer the other afternoon. On the curbing stood a man who waved at her. After she had passed out of sight, he lighted a cigar and smiled. Copyrighted, 1924, by the McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

Dear Colonel—
I wish you would come up to the hospital and see me. I want to ask you something about Sassy Susan.
I'm feeling great now but you know how I worry.
Yours sincerely

JUST THINK ISAAC—A WEEK AGO TODAY I WAS LYING ON THE BEACH IN THE NICE WARM SUNSHINE—BALMY AS A JUNE DAY.

OH IT IS SO HARD TO BELIEVE MR. MUNN.

HERE IT IS TEN BELOW AND JUST A WEEK AGO I WAS AT THE MIAMI BEACH COUNTRY CLUB PLAYING GOLF IN MY LIGHT KNICKERS, NO COAT—WARM.

YOU DO SURPRISE ME MR. MUNN.

WELL MISS FIPP—JUST A WEEK AGO I WAS IN THE SURF AT CASINO BEACH, THERMOMETER, NEARLY NINETY.

NOT RE-FAVOR MR. MUNN!! OH, I JUST LOVE THAT.

WELL HENRY—I GUESS YOU'LL HARDLY BELIEVE I WAS IN SWIMMING ONLY A WEEK AGO TODAY TRYING TO KEEP COOL—AND NOW HERE IT'S BELOW ZERO—HEH—HEH HARD TO BELIEVE—ISN'T IT?

MR. MUNN THAT IS PERFECTLY AMAZING NOW ISN'T IT?

THE DANG-GAHN OLD FOOL IS HE GOING TO TELL US THAT EVERY DAY? HE'S TOLD ME THAT TWICE A DAY SINCE HE GOT BACK.

HE MUST THINK HE'S THE ONLY ONE THAT WAS EVER IN FLORIDA.

IF HE PULLS IT AGAIN ON ME I'M GOING TO COME RIGHT OUT AND TELL 'IM I'M HERE TO DO MY LITTLE WORK—AND THAT'S ALL.

IT GETS VERY TIRESOME BUT WE HAVE TO PUT UP WITH IT—HE'S THE BOSS.

I WANT HIM TO LEAVE ME STRICTLY A-LONE.

That Wouldn't Starter
Difficult Customer—"I can't remember the name of the car I want—I think it starts with T."
Exasperated Salesman—"Madam, all our cars start with gasoline." — The Passing Show (London).

The Likeness
Wife (waxing philosophical)—Just to think, John! First utter drabness, then the working of the sap and finally the gorgeous tree—splendid in its multitude of gold and crimson gowns! How like our lives!
Fed-up Husband—How like, indeed, my dear! You the gorgeous tree and me the sap!

False Alarm
After much excitement the Smiths at last had managed to get under way on their motor trip.
As they drove along they began to wonder if they had left anything behind.
Mrs. Smith gave a shriek.
"Oh, Harry," she gasped, "I forgot to turn off the electric iron!"
"Don't worry, darling," he replied, "nothing will burn. I forgot to turn off the shower bath." — Christian Advocate.

Didn't Count
A Detroit clergyman relates that one day he was called upon to marry a couple. His catechism of the prospective bridegroom was satisfactory and marrying-us."
